

Contact

 carly@humanethos.com.au

EDUCATION AND DEGREE

- BSci / LLB University of Melbourne
- Masters of Psychology (Clinical), University of Melbourne
- PhD, Clinical Psychology, University of Melbourne

“THE MENTAL HEALTH OF FAMILY COURT JUDGES” (JUDICIAL WELLBEING)”

CARLY SCHREVER (Ph.D)

BIOGRAPHY

Organization and Position: Director of Human Ethos, Associate Professor of Law School, University of Western Australia

Field of specialization: Judicial and lawyer wellbeing

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 2005-2007, Judge’s Associate in the Supreme Court of Victoria;
- 2007-2013, Projects Manager, Judicial College of Victoria;
- 2013-2014, Senior Researcher, Australian Centre for Justice Innovation, Monash University;
- 2014-2022, Judicial Wellbeing Advisor to the Judicial College of Victoria;
- In 2024, worked in an international committee of judges to draft the Nauru Declaration on Judicial Wellbeing – a statement of universal principles to guide judicial wellbeing reform globally;
- Works with legal professionals in Australia and overseas;
- 2022-Present, Principal Investigator on an Australian Research Council-funded national research project on judicial wellbeing across Australia;
- 2023-Present, Director, Human Ethos;
- Associate Professor (Principal Research Fellow) in Law at the University of Western Australia.